

Lisa Romerein, a Los Angeles based photographer, specializes in food and lifestyle, architecture, interiors and gardens, travel and portraiture. Her clients include renowned industry pioneers such as Ferguson & Shamamian, Monique Lhuillier and Cox London. Lisa recently photographed the celebrated Southern California restaurant Cafe Gratitude cookbook, Love is Served. Additionally she has photographed The Crossroads Cookbook by Chef Tal Ronnen; Small Bites, Big Nights a cookbook in collaboration with Chef Govind Armstrong; and Brooke and Steve Giannetti's Patina Style and Patina Farm books. She acted as the principal photographer for Diane Keaton's The House That Pinterest Built and landscape designer Scott Shrader's The Art of Outdoor Living. She is currently working on the upcoming book for Lotusland, considered one of the top ten gardens of the world.

Others on Lisa's client roster include: Lucifer Lighting, Casa Del Mar, Kallista/Kohler, Restoration Hardware, Lucky Brand, Pratt and Lambert, Progress Lighting, Waterford, Cox London, National Pork Board, Shutters on the Beach, Fairmont Hotel, Meadowood, Malibu Beach Inn, Canary Hotel, Gearys, HGTV, St. John's Hospital, Cedars Sinai Hospital, Jeffrey Alan Marks, Marshall Watson, Architectural Digest, Victoria Hagan, Windsor Smith, Arteriors, C Magazine, National Pork Board, Paul Wiseman, Rose Tarlow, Chad Eisner, Veranda, Town and Country, Commune Design, KAA Design, Coastal Living, House Beautiful, Oceana Hotel, Matthew Leverone, Los Angeles Magazine, Sunset Magazine, Martha Stewart Living, C Magazine, and Ferguson & Shamamian among many more.